

RESIDENTIAL COMPUTER SERVICE

564 Joseph Road
Manteca, CA 95336
209-824-2550

techsupport@rescompsvs.com

"Making Your Home PC More User Friendly"

Updating eTrust Antivirus Program

| Connect to the Internet                                                                                                                                             | Using AOL, MSN, Earthlink                                                            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| At the lower right corner of the desktop near the time you will observe a blue box with a yellow bouncing ball. With your mouse right click on the blue box. |    |
| Move your cursor up to the “Download Signature Now” and click                                                                                         |   |
| A box like this will appear on the desktop and will stay there until updates are completed.                                                                  |  |
| Disconnect from Internet                                                                                                                                     | Updates are completed.                                                        |
|                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                      |